

Postcard from a Character

Choose a character from the book you are currently reading. Write a postcard from one character to another. What would they say? What are they thinking? What do they need to tell the other character? Where would they send the postcard from?