Are you eager to read one of these books but can't find it? Here are our top tips:

- Have a look in your class book corner or the library. Please note that not all of these titles are available in school; however, we are always replenishing our library areas with new and exciting authors.
- Make a request via our book request box which is located in the Key Stage 2 main library.
- Ask at the office for a copy of the registration forms for Whitstable library.
- Need more to read? Explore www.booksfortopics.com which is a great website for exploring children's literature. The website makes recommendations for age-appropriate texts, matches fiction books with different learning themes and has a direct link to Amazon if you wish to buy any of them.

Recommended Reads for Year 4

This leaflet contains the ultimate reading list for your child's year group. As well as being an enjoyable pastime, reading impacts hugely on children's reading and writing ability and general learning. We encourage children to read as much as possible, both at home and in school. To assist with the difficult task of choosing a new book, we have put together a recommended reading list including popular titles and authors, new authors, award winners, poetry collections and classic titles.

OUR TOP THREE TOPIC READS!

How to Train your Dragon by Cressida Cowell

Hiccup Horrendous Haddock the Third is a smallish Viking with a longish name. Hiccup's father is chief of the Hairy Hooligan tribe which means Hiccup is the hope and the heir to the Hairy Hooligan throne - but most of the time Hiccup feels like a very ordinary boy, finding it hard to be a hero.

Journey to the River Sea by Eva Ibbotson

Winner of the Smarties Gold medal. It is 1910 and Maia, tragically orphaned at thirteen, has been sent from England to start a new life with distant relatives in Manaus, hundreds of miles up the Amazon. She is accompanied by an eccentric and mysterious governess who has secret reasons of her own for making the journey. Both soon discover an exotic world bursting with new experiences in Journey to the River Sea, Eva Ibbotson's highly colourful, joyous adventure.

So You Think You've Got It Bad? A Kid's Life in Ancient Egypt by the British Museum

In this hilarious book, written by award-winning author Chae Strathie, children will learn exactly how difficult life really was, from dodging Deathstalker scorpions and cleaning up cow dung, to fetching water from the well, eating roast hedgehog and being slammed in the stocks for being naughty at school! Probably the first book about ancient Egypt that involves bubble wrap and skateboards!
