Are you eager to read one of these books but can't find it? Here are our top tips:

- Have a look in your class book corner or Year Group Book Nook. Please note that not all of these titles are available in school; however, we are always replenishing our library areas with new and exciting authors.
- Ask an adult to help you find a particular book—Mrs Harkins or Miss Gillmore may know where your book can be found!
- Visit Whitstable library, where you can borrow books for FREE! If you can't find your book, ask them at the library counter. They may be able to locate it at a different library and order it in for you! Sign up for a library card here: Register | Kent Libraries \(spydus.co.uk\)
- Need more to read? Explore www.booksfortopics.com which is a great website for exploring children's literature. The website makes recommendations for age-appropriate texts, matches fiction books with different learning themes and has a direct link to Amazon if you wish to buy any of them.

Recommended Reads for Year 5

This leaflet contains the ultimate reading list for your child's year group. As well as being an enjoyable pastime, reading impacts hugely on children's reading and writing ability and general learning. We encourage children to read as much as possible, both at home and in school. To assist with the difficult task of choosing a new book, we have put together a recommended reading list including popular titles and authors, new authors, award winners, poetry collections and classic titles.

OUR TOP THREE TOPIC READS!

Who Let the Gods Out by Maz Evans

When Elliot wished upon a star, he didn't expect a constellation to crash in to his dung heap. Virgo thinks she's perfect. Elliot doesn't. Together they release Thanatos, evil Daemon of Death. Epic fail. They need the king of the Gods and his noble steed, they get a chubby Zeus and his high horse Pegasus. Are the gods really ready to save the world? And is the world really ready for the gods?

The Wilderness War by Julia Green

This is our place and we'll fight to save it! A summer spent in the place Noah and his friends call the Wilderness, is a summer spent making dens, sleeping under the stars, and toasting marshmallows over an open fire. It's freedom. Until one day their Wilderness is sold and set for development and their dens torn down to make way for houses. For Noah and his friends this means war and they'll do anything to stop the Wilderness being destroyed.

Voices: Diver's Daughters a Tudor Story by Patrice Laurence

This book brings Eve and her mother, who was stolen from her family in Mozambique as a child, from the Southwark slums of Elizabethan London to England's southern coast. When they hear from a Mary Rose survivor that one of the African free-divers who was sent to salvage its treasures is alive and well and living in Southampton, mother and daughter agree to try to find him and attempt to dive the wreck of another ship, rumoured to be rich with treasures. But will the pair survive when the man arrives to claim his 'share'?
